Tip of the Season!!

'Tis the season to be sparkling!

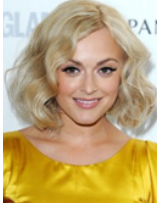

Tip If you are watching your champagne or sparkling wine intake at parties, opt for sparkling apple or grape juice! Still have it in a beautiful champagne glass and you will have all your guests fooled!

CHRISTMAS PARTY HAIR...

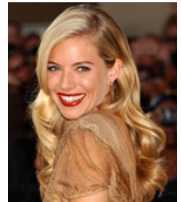

Party Hair Styles for the Festive Season

The party season is only a few weeks away, so it is time to start thinking about your Christmas party hair styles. It is always fun to experiment with your hair, and what better time than the party season for trying fabulous new party hair styles. Christmas and New Year parties call for magnificent party hair styles, so read on for some party hair ideas to get you into the Christmas spirit.

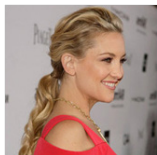

CURLS & WAVES

Curls and waves are great party hair styles, not only are they versatile and stylish, they can also be adapted to suit almost any hair type or length. Fearne Cotton rocks this look on her short bob, for a relaxed boho look, while Sienna Miller goes all out red carpet glamour, with her long tousled waves and bright red lips.

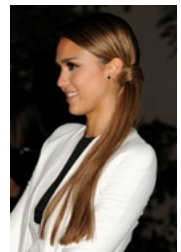

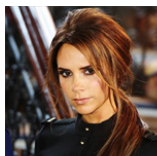

CLASSIC UPDO

You can never go wrong with a simple and classic updo for a glamorous party hair style. The updo is a perfect option for medium to long hair, with an array of many style variations from stylish oversized buns to tousled, loose hair up styles. For the wow factor take notes from Camilla Belle's bouffant hair up. Or why not try a more undone look like Emily Blunt's tousled updo. This is a chic, classic look, that will work well for any occasion. Vamp up the glamour with a plaited side bun, just like Charlize Theron.

PONYTAILS

The ponytail has managed to work its way onto the red carpet, so it is definitely a hot look for any Christmas party hair style, this simple do does not mean boring as Kate Hudson, Victoria Beckham and Jessica Alba demonstrate, there are many different ways to update your ponytail.

HAIR ACCESSORIES

Whether it be a bow, clip or headband – hair accessories add beauty to any Christmas party hairstyle. But be careful, accessories should be kept subtle and should not over take your look. See how Mischa Barton instantly glams up her simple bun with her sparkly hair accessory, while Natalie Portman opts for a sparkly headband accessory to add interest to her updo.
